Toras Chaim - Short Vort

In God's Image

Bamidbar 9:12 "And do not break a bone from it."

The Sefer HaChinuch notes that the reason for this prohibition is to demonstrate that we are princes and not dogs, who break bones to find food. However this message is not just applicable to the Korban Pesach, but it could equally apply all year long. We are to act in accordance with the fact that we are created b'tzelem Elokim, and are required to act with honor and dignity at all times

Life's lesson: we are created in God's image

A truth seeker

Bamidbar 10:31 "Please do not leave us...you will be our eyes..."

Rashi notes that Moshe requested that Yisro not leave. Why was Moshe so concerned about Yisro's departure? What did he mean that Yisro would be the eyes of the people? Rav Nosson Tzvi Wachtfogel z'l explained that Yisro's journey to Judaism was the prototypical journey of a person who had it all, and yet went on a quest for truth.

He was a leader of Midyan, a world of idolatry, yet he left it all behind to seek truth....and he did it on his own. Yisro serves as the image of someone whose personal investment in a relationship with God was permanent, and is thus an ideal model for us to emulate.

Life's lesson: seek truth at whatever the price.

Good Shabbos,
Rabbi Cohen
