PRACTICAL HALACHA

The repetition of the Amidah

Origin

The original purpose of the repetition of the amidah was so that anyone in the congregation who could not pray on their own, would fulfill their obligation of prayer by listening to the recitation of the shliach tzibor.

Today we have three types of prayer:

1. Individual prayer without a community - tefillas hayachid
2. Individual prayer as part of a community- tefillah b'tzibur
3. Communal prayer led by the shliach tzibor - tefillas hatzibur

This last prayer is the highest form of prayer.

Practice

When the shliach tzibor steps back from his silent prayer, he should stand in his place for the amount of time it takes to walk for paces and then return to his original place by taking three steps forward. He then recites the words, ‘My Lord open my lips...’

Conduct

Each person must take care to be quiet and listen and concentrate to what the shliach tzibor is saying. We say Baruch Hu.....and omen for each blessing as appropriate. It is forbidden to study Torah while this prayer is being recited. It goes without saying that one must not engage in idle chatter. If it is not difficult, one should stand during this repetition in the same manner as one stands for Amidah. It is best to follow along in a siddur. Some have the habit of removing their Rashi tefillin after kedusha and putting on Rabbeinu Tam tefillin, but in so doing they are going against Halacha.

Good Shabbos,
Rabbi Cohen
