PRACTICAL HALACHA

WHAT TO DO WHEN IN DOUBT ABOUT MASHIV HARUACH?

If, after you have prayed, you are unsure whether you said Mashiv HaRuach, the Halacha is as follows:

If it was 30 days after we began to say Mashiv HaRuach, so that you have already prayed 90 times with the appropriate phrase, the assumption is that you said it correctly. After this time you are assumed to have acquired the new habit in the recitation of Mashiv HaRuach.

However, if it is within 30 days after we began to say Mashiv HaRuach, then you must go back and pray Shemonei Esrei again.

This Halacha applies to a person who became unsure immediately after completing his prayer. However, if you knew that before you began to pray you had in mind to say Mashiv HaRuach and sometime after you prayed, you cannot remember if you indeed said it correctly, you need not repeat the Shemonei Esrei.

There is a disagreement among the authorities, whether the change in habit occurs as a result of reciting it 90 times or whether it occurs after observing the change over a period of 30 days.

On a regular day Mashiv HaRuach is recited three times a day and after 30 days it has been recited more than 90 times when including Shabbos and Rosh Chodesh.

Conversely, the correct wording in the blessing of Bareich Aleinu will not be recited in 30 days since it is not recited on Shabbos.

Mishna Brura rules that you should follow the lenient opinion in both cases. This means if 30 days have not passed and you are unsure if you have said Mashiv HaRuach 90 times, or regarding Bareich Aleinu 30 days have passed but you are unsure if you have 90 repetitions in both cases you do not repeat.

Good Shabbos,
Rabbi Cohen
